The drum notation is written on a grand staff with a bass clef on the left and a treble clef on the right. It consists of 12 staves of music. The first four staves are marked 'PNO. SOLO' and contain rhythmic patterns with repeat signs and measure counts (2, 4, 6, 8). The fifth staff has a section marked 'A Sxs.' with a double bar line. The sixth staff has a section marked 'B (Tess.)' with a double bar line. The seventh staff has a section marked 'FILL' with a double bar line. The eighth staff has a section marked 'C 2ND TENOR JAZZ' with a double bar line. The ninth staff has a section marked 'D 4TH TENOR JAZZ SOLO' with a double bar line. The tenth staff has a section marked 'E' with a double bar line. The notation includes various rhythmic values, repeat signs, and measure counts.
